Troy Officials: Ferry Street Tunnel Reopened to Normal Traffic

TROY, NY – City officials today announced the Ferry Street tunnel, previously closed for scheduled maintenance operations, has been reopened to regular vehicle traffic effective Friday, June 2. Residents and drivers are thanked for their patience during the extended maintenance schedule.

Additional maintenance activities for the Ferry Street Tunnel may be scheduled during the coming weeks. Announcements and updates will be posted on the City of Troy website – www.troyny.gov – and the City's social media pages.
